WELCOME AND INTRODUCTIONS:

President McDonnell welcomed members and guests. She expressed that WCR is not just for women, but rather for community. Guests were introduced.

AFFILIATE OF THE MONTH:

Nicole Cumming, Chicago Title spoke briefly about her personal and professional background.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Pres. McDonnell described the need for volunteers/donors to help put together and send care packages to Rich McDaniel while deployed in Iraq. The purpose is to show support to the fellow REALTOR and keep him updated on Real Estate matters during his absence.

Angie Saltzman and Russ Ideishi made an announcement about the upcoming Texas Hold'em fundraiser on February 27. Sponsors are still being sought. Tickets available through Angie or at the door the night of the event.

Flamingo Flocking chair, Julia Roberts showed off her Flamingo that was presented to her at the Board Meeting prior to the BRM that morning. The kickoff for the "Flamingo Flocking" fundraiser is set for April 1.

Fashion Show chair, Kim Rothacher announced the theme for the June Fashion Show. "Wild Orchid Nights" will set the stage at the proposed sight of the London Bridge Convention Center tentatively scheduled for June 14th. Committee members are being sought to help with this fundraiser.

Pres. McDonnell explained that money from these fundraisers go to send the leadership team to various State and National WCR meetings. Monies also go toward bringing classes to our local area, directly benefiting WCR members. Upcoming meetings include the State meeting in Prescott March 13-15th, which is held in conjunction with AAR's Winter Conference. A Woman's Wealth Building Summit in Newport Beach is scheduled for June. All members are encouraged to attend either of these and they may qualify for a $100 scholarship for attending.

PROGRAM:

Judi Harris introduced speaker Jarrod Lyman, Convention & Visitors Bureau. "Fasten Your Seatbelts, Here It Comes!" outlined the importance and impact of Tourism in our area.
