ANNOUNCEMENT:

Angie announced that the 2007 Annual Report for Women's Council of Realtors once again has given our chapter the Gold Chapter Excellence Award. Julia, Michele and Angie will bring home the GOLD to Lake Havasu on their return from Washington D.C.

The fete was prestigious for our Chapter.

INSPIRATION:

Pat Brown of Keller Williams talked to us about the word NO in any successful venture. Learn to love No as the person who hears the word No enough is also the person who receives the most Yes answers in their business. The person who hears no is out there working and consequently gets the most Yes answers.

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT:

Pat Moedl of Stewart Title spoke of her life through both good and bad times, she was inspirational as she and her family overcame many obstacles including overcoming hearing impaired family members as well as being Cancer Survivor. She was inspirational and it was interesting to know about her life outside of the work environment.

GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS:

Glenn Conroy of Realty Executives talked about the new taxes that are proposed and how they will affect our future in our industry. He wants all of us to become involved before consumers are hindered from buying and selling properties His main synopsis is Get Involved.

EVENT REPORTS:

Kim Rothacher from Spitfire Events brought us up to date on "Crystal Blue Nights" our Fashion show scheduled for June 12, 2008. She spoke of the silent bottle auction with sponsorships. Gold Sponsorship is $300.00, Silver is $150.00 and Bronze is $75.00.

It was also announced there would be a wine tasting event at Windsor Square for Patti Smith who was injured in a motorcycle accident.

Julia Roberts of Brooks- Clarke announced there would be an event at Chuy's to raise money for Patti. For every $10.00 chicken dinner Chuy's will donate $5.00 to the fund. Some of the waitresses will also donate their tips. That will be held on 5-9-2008.

PROGRAM:

Judi Harris introduced Gary Kellog as our guest speaker. Gary is with the PED he is President and CEO for the Partnership for Economic Development. Gary gave an interesting update of the Lake Havasu Business Park as well as the shops and the Auto Mall. He spoke of multi focal issues and showed just how updated and forward thinking our City has become.
